

NOTICE OF PENDING CLASS ACTION AND PROPOSED SETTLEMENT

READ THIS NOTICE FULLY AND CAREFULLY; THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT MAY AFFECT YOUR RIGHTS!

IF YOU HAVE OR HAD A CHECKING ACCOUNT WITH PEOPLE’S UNITED BANK AND WERE CHARGED AN OVERDRAFT FEE BETWEEN FEBRUARY 21, 2011, AND OCTOBER 31, 2016, THEN YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO A PAYMENT FROM A CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

SUMMARY OF YOUR OPTIONS AND THE LEGAL EFFECT OF EACH OPTION
APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT AND RECEIVE A PAYMENT; YOU NEED NOT DO ANYTHING	Unless you exclude yourself from the settlement (see the next paragraph), then you will receive a check or a credit to your account (depending on whether you are still a customer of People’s United Bank, N.A. (“PUB”).
EXCLUDE YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT; RECEIVE NO PAYMENT BUT RELEASE NO CLAIMS	You can choose to exclude yourself from the settlement or “opt out.” This means you choose not to participate in the settlement. You will keep your individual claims against PUB but you will not receive a payment. If you exclude yourself from the settlement but want to recover against PUB, you will have to file a separate lawsuit or claim.
OBJECT TO THE SETTLEMENT	You can file an objection with the Court explaining why you believe the Court should reject the settlement. If your objection is overruled by the Court, then you will receive a payment and you will not be able to sue PUB for the claims asserted in this litigation. If the Court agrees with your objection, then the settlement may not be approved.

These rights and options—and the deadlines to exercise them—along with the material terms of the settlement are explained in this Notice.

1. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit that is being settled is entitled Terriann Walker v. People's United Bank, N.A. in the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, Case No. 3:17-CV-00304-AVC. The case is a "class action." That means that the "Named Plaintiff," Terriann Walker, is an individual who is acting on behalf of two groups. The first is all customers of PUB who were charged an overdraft fee for any payment transaction from February 21, 2011, to October 31, 2016, and at the time such fee was imposed, that person had sufficient funds in the ledger balance but not the available balance in his or her account to complete the transaction. The second group is all members of PUB who were charged an overdraft fee for a debit card transaction from February 21, 2016, through October 31, 2016. The persons in these groups are collectively called the "Class Members."

The Named Plaintiff claims PUB improperly charged overdraft fees when members had enough money in the ledger balances but not the available balances of their checking accounts to cover a transaction, and also alleges PUB did not properly opt customers into its overdraft program for debit card payment transactions. The complaint in the action alleged Breach of Opt-In Contract, Breach of Account Agreement, Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing, Unjust Enrichment/Restitution, Money Had and Received, Violation of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act, and Violation of the Connecticut Unfair Trade Practices Act. The Named Plaintiff is seeking a refund of alleged improper overdraft fees charged to Class Member accounts. PUB does not deny it charged overdraft fees but contends it did so properly and in accordance with the terms of its agreements and applicable law. PUB maintains that its practice was proper and was disclosed to its customers, and therefore denies that its practices give rise to claims for damages by the Named Plaintiff or any Class Member.

2. Why did I receive this Notice of this lawsuit?

You received this Notice because PUB's records indicate that you were charged one or more Eligible Overdraft Fees. The Court directed that this Notice be sent to all Class Members because each Class Member has a right to know about the proposed settlement and the options available to him or her before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement.

3. Why did the parties settle?

In any lawsuit, there are risks and potential benefits that come with a trial versus settling at an earlier stage. It is the Named Plaintiff's lawyers' job to identify when a proposed settlement offer is good enough that it justifies recommending settling the case instead of continuing to trial. In a class action, these lawyers, known as Class Counsel, make this recommendation to the Named Plaintiff. The Named Plaintiff has the duty to act in the best interests of the class as a whole and, in this case, it is her belief, as well as Class Counsel's opinion, that this settlement is in the best interest of all Class Members for at least the following reasons:

There is legal uncertainty about whether a judge or a jury will find that PUB was contractually and otherwise legally obligated not to assess overdraft fees when the ledger balance was sufficient to pay for a transaction, and even if it was, there is uncertainty about whether the claims are subject to other defenses that might result in no or less recovery to Class Members. Even if the Named Plaintiff were to win at trial, there is no assurance that the Class Members would be awarded more than the current settlement amount and it may take years of litigation before any payments would be made. By settling, the Class Members will avoid these and other risks and the delays associated with continued litigation.

While PUB disputes the allegations in the lawsuit and denies any liability or wrongdoing, it enters into the settlement solely to avoid the expense, inconvenience, and distraction of further proceedings in the litigation.

WHO IS IN THE SETTLEMENT

4. How do I know if I am part of the Settlement?

If you received this notice, then PUB's records indicate that you are a Class Member who is entitled to receive a payment or credit to your account.

Questions? Call 1-833-935-1353 or visit www.PeoplesUnitedBankOverdraftSettlement.com.

YOUR OPTIONS

5. What options do I have with respect to the Settlement?

You have three options: (1) do nothing and automatically participate in the settlement; (2) exclude yourself from the settlement (“opt out” of it); or (3) participate in the settlement but object to it. Each of these options is described in a separate section below.

6. What are the critical deadlines?

To participate in the settlement, you need not do anything; so long as you do not opt out or exclude yourself (described in Questions 16 through 18, below), a payment will be made to you, either by crediting your account if you are still a member of PUB or by mailing a check to you at the last address on file with PUB (or any other address you provide).

The deadline for sending a letter to exclude yourself from or opt out of the settlement is February 27, 2020.

The deadline to file an objection with the Court is March 18, 2020.

7. How do I decide which option to choose?

If you do not like the settlement and you believe that you could receive more money by pursuing your claims on your own (with or without an attorney that you could hire) and you are comfortable with the risk that you might lose your case or get less than you would in this settlement, then you may want to consider opting out.

If you believe the settlement is unreasonable, unfair, or inadequate and the Court should reject the settlement, then you can object to the settlement terms. The Court will decide if your objection is valid. If the Court agrees, then the settlement will not be approved and no payments will be made to you or any other Class Member. If your objection (and any other objection) is overruled, and the settlement is approved, then you will still get a payment.

8. What has to happen for the Settlement to be approved?

The Court has to decide that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate before it will approve it. The Court already has decided to provide preliminary approval of the settlement, which is why you received this Notice. The Court will make a final decision regarding the settlement at a “Fairness Hearing” or “Final Approval Hearing”, which is currently scheduled for April 7, 2020.

THE SETTLEMENT PAYMENT

9. How much is the Settlement?

PUB has agreed to create a Settlement Fund of $6,500,000. In addition, PUB has agreed to forgive Eligible Overdraft Fees which were assessed but have not been collected from Class Members as of August 28, 2019, and this is estimated to be an additional $900,000 towards the Value of the Settlement.

As discussed separately below, attorneys’ fees, litigation costs, a Service Award to the Named Plaintiff, and the costs paid to a third-party Settlement Administrator to administer the settlement (including mailing and emailing this notice) will be paid out of the Settlement Fund. The balance of the Settlement Fund will be divided among all Class Members based on the amount of Eligible Overdraft Fees they paid.

10. How much of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay for attorney fees and costs?

Class Counsel will request an attorney fee be awarded by the Court of not more than one-third of the Value of the Settlement. Class Counsel has also requested that it be reimbursed approximately $150,000 in litigation costs incurred in prosecuting the case. The Court will decide the amount of the attorneys’ fees and costs based on a number of factors, including the risk associated with bringing the case on a contingency basis, the amount of time spent on the case, the amount of costs incurred to prosecute the case, the quality of the work, and the outcome of the case.

Questions? Call 1-833-935-1353 or visit www.PeoplesUnitedBankOverdraftSettlement.com.

11. How much of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay the Named Plaintiff a Service Award?

Class Counsel, on behalf of the Named Plaintiff, has requested that the Court award her $15,000 for her role in acting as the Named Plaintiff and securing this settlement on behalf of the class. The Court will decide if a Service Award is appropriate and if so, the amount of the award.

12. How much of the Settlement Fund will be used to pay the Settlement Administrator’s expenses?

The Settlement Administrator has agreed to cap its expenses at $142,089.

13. Do I have to do anything if I want to participate in the Settlement?

No. As long as you do not opt out, a credit will be applied to your checking account if you are an existing member, or a check will be mailed to you at the last known address PUB has for you if you are not an existing credit union member. If your address has changed, you should provide your current address to the Settlement Administrator at the address set forth in Question 15, below.

14. When will I receive my payment?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing (explained below in Questions 21–23) on April 7, 2020 at 2:00 p.m., to consider whether the settlement should be approved. If the Court approves the settlement, then payments should be made or credits should be issued within about 40 to 60 days after the settlement is approved. However, if someone objects to the settlement, and the objection is sustained, then there is no settlement. Even if all objections are overruled and the Court approves the settlement, an objector could appeal and it might take months or even years to have the appeal resolved, which would delay any payment.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

15. How do I exclude myself from the Settlement?

If you do not want to receive a payment, or if you want to keep any right you may have to sue PUB for the claims alleged in this lawsuit, then you must exclude yourself or “opt out.”

To opt out, you must send a letter to the Settlement Administrator stating that you want to be excluded. Your letter can simply say “I hereby elect to be excluded from the settlement in the Walker v. People’s United Bank, N.A. class action.” Be sure to include your name, last four digits of your member number, address, telephone number, and email address. Your exclusion or opt-out request must be postmarked by February 27, 2020, and sent to:

Walker v. People’s United Bank Administrator
P.O. Box 3719
Portland, OR 97208-3719

16. What happens if I opt out of the Settlement?

If you opt out of the settlement, you will preserve and not give up any of your rights to sue PUB for the claims alleged in this case. However, you will not be entitled to receive a payment from this settlement.

17. If I exclude myself, can I obtain a payment?

No. If you exclude yourself, you will not be entitled to a payment.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

18. How do I notify the Court that I do not like the Settlement?

You can object to the settlement or any part of it that you do not like IF you do not exclude yourself or opt out from the settlement. (Class Members who exclude themselves from the settlement have no right to object to how other Class Members are treated.) To object, you must send a written document to the Settlement Administrator at the address below. Your objection should say that you are a Class Member, that you object to the settlement, the factual and legal reasons why you object, and whether you intend to appear at the hearing. In your objection, you must include your name, address, telephone number, email address (if applicable) and your signature.

All objections must be postmarked no later than March 18, 2020, and must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator as follows:

Walker v. People's United Bank Administrator
P.O. Box 3719
Portland, OR 97208-3719

19. What is the difference between objecting and requesting exclusion from the Settlement?

Objecting is telling the Court that you do not believe the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate for the class, and asking the Court to reject it. You can object only if you do not opt out of the settlement. If you object to the settlement and do not opt out, then you are entitled to a payment if the settlement is approved, but you will release claims you might have against PUB. Excluding yourself or opting out is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the settlement, and do not want to receive a payment or release claims you might have against PUB for the claims alleged in this lawsuit.

20. What happens if I object to the Settlement?

If the Court sustains your objection, or the objection of any other Class Member, then there is no settlement. If you object, but the Court overrules your objection and any other objection(s), then you will be part of the settlement.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement?

The Court will hold a Final Approval or Fairness Hearing on April 7, 2020 at 2:00 p.m., at the United States District Court for the District of Connecticut, 450 Main Street, Courtroom 1, Hartford, Connecticut 06103. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate. If there are objections, the Court will consider them. The Court may also decide how much to award Class Counsel for attorneys' fees and expenses and how much the Named Plaintiff should get as a Service Award for acting as the class representative.

22. Do I have to come to the hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may attend if you desire to do so. If you have submitted an objection, then you may want to attend.

23. May I speak at the hearing?

If you have objected, you may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include with your objection, described in Question 18, above, the statement, "I hereby give notice that I intend to appear at the Final Approval Hearing."

IF YOU DO NOTHING

24. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing at all, and if the settlement is approved, then you will receive a payment that represents your share of the Settlement Fund net of attorneys' fees, Settlement Administrator expenses, and the Named Plaintiff's Service Award. You will be considered a part of the class, and you will give up claims against PUB for the conduct alleged in this lawsuit. You will not give up any other claims you might have against PUB that are not part of this lawsuit.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

25. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court ordered that the lawyers and their law firms referred to in this notice as "Class Counsel" will represent you and the other Class Members.
